

WATERVILLE VALLEY CONTINUES A PASSION THAT IS SHARED

WATERVILLE VALLEY, NH – It is the mountain. It is the town. It is the passion that winter enthusiasts share. Waterville Valley is known among locals for offering a truly genuine New Hampshire ski experience. And that experience starts with the resort's spectacular location, a 500 acre valley surrounded by the peaks of New Hampshire's White Mountains.

The ski area itself rises to 4,000 feet with a 2,020-foot vertical drop and terrain for all levels of skiers. Valley Run, rated the best learning slope in New England, has 1.2 kilometers of terrain for intermediate skiers and snowboarders. The North Side features wide intermediate ski trails like Tippecanoe and Tyler Too and intermediate glades, Old T Trees.

Expert skiers can head to the Sunnyside Slopes and black diamond trails like True Grit, Ciao and Gema. At Waterville, you will find 52 trails, 250 skiable acres, and three terrain parks are covered 100 percent by snowmaking and nightly grooming. All this ensures the best possible ski conditions.

Waterville Valley is also known as the place to learn to ski and snowboard. The staff is proud of its reputation for sharing the passion of sliding on snow with generations of skiers. Group and private lessons, Kids Venture Kamps and family ski clinics are offered daily. Waterville Valley's Top Dog Ski and Snowboard Rental Shops conveniently serve guests right at the base and feature K2 shaped skis and Burton Snowboards.

The genuine New Hampshire experience continues in the small village of Waterville Valley, a short trolley ride away. There is Town Square, with a full service Nordic Center for cross country skiing and snowshoeing, an indoor ice-skating arena, horse drawn sleigh rides and selection of alpine shops like Mountains of Chocolate and Waterville Valley Shirt Company.

Restaurant choices range from "three courses and candles" at Diamond's Edge, a burger and a beer at Legends to the always popular Olde Waterville Pizza Co. Most lodges, inns and condominiums are also within walking distance of Town Square and guests have access to the indoor White Mountain Athletic Club with its pool, saunas, Jacuzzis and racquetball courts.

The best way to experience all that Waterville Valley has to offer is on a ski and stay package. Stay in the village, park the car and enjoy a car-free weekend. Check out
