SALT LAKE CITY: AMERICA'S SKI CITY

The Ultimate Basecamp for skiers with 17,000 hotel rooms and hundreds of bars and restaurants

SALT LAKE CITY, UT – Salt Lake is the ultimate urban basecamp for skiers and snowboarders alike, particularly those who long to ski and ride some of the world's true "bucket list" resorts while experiencing all of the excitement and endless options of a capital city. Salt Lake, a.k.a. Ski City, offers a remarkable combination of endless urban activities and amenities with the world-class skiing of the Cottonwood Canyon resorts of Alta, Snowbird, Brighton and Solitude, something unmatched anywhere else in North America. This winning combination is further enhanced by more than 500 inches of Utah's famed "Greatest Snow On Earth," value unattainable in traditional ski town lodging and dining, and Salt Lake's unbeatable accessibility.

Ski towns have their place, but for the ever-changing demographics of skiers and snowboarders, the Salt Lake urban experience completely meets and often exceeds the multiple wants, needs and expectations of today's skiers.

Ski City's Urban Experience

Salt Lake's transformation over the past decade, with billions of dollars invested in the redevelopment of its downtown, has created a new type of action-packed "basecamp." The centerpiece of the downtown core is City Creek Center, a 23-acre mixed-use project featuring retail, residential and office space. Along with City Creek, scores of new restaurants and bars featuring locally crafted beers and distilled spirits have opened in the downtown area alone the past few years. The Eccles Performing Arts Center, a 2,500-seat state-of-the-art theater in the heart of downtown, offers the ultimate venue for live theater, concerts and special events.

Skiing and Snowboarding

Alta, Brighton, Snowbird and Solitude are true bucket list resorts for skiers throughout the world. Each of the four have unique characteristics that set them apart, though share rope lines or are just a couple miles apart. Moreover, to make skiing or riding these four resorts as simple as possible, there is the Ski City Super Pass, your golden ticket to everything Ski City has to offer. Purchase anywhere from 1 to 10 days of skiing and the Super Pass gives direct-to-lift access to the resort(s) of your choosing and their combined 7,000 acres of skiing, deep discounts on rental equipment, and even free transportation to/from the resorts via UTA's TRAX light rail and ski buses. Simple.

Snow at Ski City's Resorts

The Greatest Snow On Earth is far more than just a slogan – it is fact. Ski City's four renowned resorts boast the most snow of any of Utah's 14 resorts, averaging more than 500 inches each winter and just under 700 inches last winter.

Ski City's Value

Due to limited resources and infrastructure, traditional ski towns demand and receive a premium price for lodging properties and dining. Salt Lake, on the other hand, offers more than 17,000 hotel rooms throughout the valley and hundreds of restaurants and bars. Moreover, because downtown Salt Lake also acts as a business center, hotel rates are even lower Thursday through Sunday, the most popular travel days for skiers and snowboarders.

Ski City offers every level of accommodation, from five-diamond luxury hotels to limited service properties, condominiums to private homes, and everything in between. The same is true for dining and nightlife. With literally hundreds of options, the ideal dining and nightlife option exists for every skier or group's possible want, need and budget.

Ski City's Accessibility

Nowhere in North America is excellent skiing as easily reached as the resorts nestled in the Wasatch Mountains. Salt Lake City International Airport, which offers more than 700 daily flights, is located just six miles from downtown. Add to that the Airport TRAX light rail line that whisks visitors to and from the airport to downtown in just 20 minutes and costs only $2.50.

In addition, the SLC International Airport is undergoing a $2.9 billion renovation without any interruption to service, ensuring it remains the nation's most efficient airport and further adding to SLC being the most accessible ski destination in the U.S. Once downtown, Ski City's four resorts are just 40 minutes away by car or UTA's ski buses.

Here are a few additional aspects that set Ski City apart from traditional ski towns and winter destinations.

The XIX Olympic Winter Games

Salt Lake City was the host city of the 2002 Olympic Winter Games and is likely to present a bid to host a future Winter Olympics, possibly for the 2026 or 2030 Games. The infrastructure is already in place and is continually upgraded as part of the 2002 Olympic Legacy, and Salt Lake's Olympic venues continue to host world-class international competitions.

Economic Development

Salt Lake, and the state of Utah as a whole, has experienced phenomenal growth in outdoor recreation-based companies, either expanding their operations in the Beehive State or relocating altogether. This is due to various reasons, including the hosting of the Winter Olympics and the hosting of dozens of national and international conventions each year.

Education and Athletes

With three prominent institutions of higher education – the University of Utah, Westminster College, Salt Lake Community College – and numerous other educational programs, Salt Lake produces an incredibly well educated population. It also offers endless access to outdoor adventure that produces scores of Olympic-caliber skiers, snowboarders and other world-class athletes.

The special programs offered by these colleges and universities allow U.S. Ski and Snowboard Team members and U.S. speed skaters the ability to pursue their college degree while training and competing at an Olympic-caliber level. In fact, so many U.S. athletes call Utah home that if the state were its own country, it would have ranked 10th in the medal count during the 2014 Winter Olympics held in Sochi, Russia. Westminster College, home to nearly 100 U.S. Ski Team members, sent 23 athletes to Sochi to represent the U.S. This represented 10 percent of the entire U.S. Olympic team.

Visit Ski City

Whether you live in Utah's capital of Salt Lake City or thousands of miles away, you are invited to join the Ski City community, a community united in being locals and sharing the benefits of being a part of Ski City.

Experience Ski City and the "Greatest Snow on Earth" for yourself this winter and learn what the locals know about a great snow experience.
