DISCOVER FUN TOGETHER at BLUE MOUNTAIN RESORT

Locally owned and operated for 41 years and now more great deals for your family & friends

PALMERTON, PA – Put Blue Mountain Resort, home of Pennsylvania’s highest vertical drop at 1,082 feet, on the list of hot spots to check out this season.

Only 75 miles northwest of Philadelphia, Blue Mountain Resort is endlessly amazing with 39 trails, 5 terrain parks, and up to 39 tubing lanes making it the only snow tubing park in the Northeast with family-sized tubes so you can zip down the mountain together.

Blue Mountain has a Family & Friends Lesson experience, where regardless of age and discipline you and your friends or family members can learn to ski together. This has been so much fun for the guests and instructors too.

New this year, guests can select a group Family & Friends experience or pay a bit more to have an exclusive Family & Friends experience. This product complements many of the other awesome products, including beginner, explorers, winter adventure camp and of course, racing and competition teams.

Blue Mountain Resort worked hard in the off-season to clear a new trail. It boasts stunning eastern valley views and an exciting finale. This trail is rated an intermediate trail and will be almost 8 acres. This is scheduled to open for the 2019-20 season, unless of course, Mother Nature is incredibly generous with natural snow in the Northeast. This trail does not have snowmaking equipment or lights as of yet, but if there is a significant amount of snowfall, the mountain may open the trail for day skiing. This is the 40th trail at Blue Mountain and is not yet named.

Purchasing tickets is smoother this season with the addition of a new e-commerce store that allows multiple products to be checked out at one time. Blue Mountain Resort is also installing ticket redemption kiosks, so when you purchase lift tickets online, you can scan your phone on property at one of the kiosks to print out the tickets and hit the slopes.

Be sure to stay on top of Blue Mountain by following on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram. #BlueMyMind

They provide one-of-a-kind suites and Ski and Stay packages to make your stay unforgettable. Featuring three separate resorts in Pennsylvania – Cove Haven Resort in Lakeville, Paradise Stream Resort in Mount Pocono and Pocono Palace Resort in Marshall’s Creek – the variety begins with choosing the resort you want and the package that best fits your needs.

If you love to ski or snowboard, and want a little romance, the annual Ski and Stay package is perfect for your escape to the Pocono Mountains. Ski the area’s top resorts like Montage Mountain, Camelback and Shawnee Mountain, then relax in your sexy suite and soak in your very own heart-shaped whirlpool bath-for-two, the perfect end to a day on the slopes.

Guests looking forward to outdoor activities will find plenty to do at Cove Haven Entertainment Resorts. The resorts feature activities with their Chief eXcitement Officers (CXOs), snowshoes to roam the property and plenty of moments to explore, enjoy and take in the Pocono Mountain scenery during snowfall. Additionally, guests can enjoy rides on snowmobiles at Pocono Palace and grab a hot beverage in the Blizzard Chalet at Cove Haven. Through the Key Around Club, guests are able to explore and use the activities and amenities available at the other properties without paying additional fees.

There is more to the resort activities than just outdoor fun. A number of indoor games are available at each property ranging from billiards, table tennis and air hockey, to indoor sports like basketball, shuffleboard, bocce ball and tennis.

Guests can also grab a bite to eat from Spooner’s Café and have a drink at the bar together while enjoying indoor activities, or they can choose to lay back and watch sports on the HD flat screen TVs.

Beyond indoor sports and on-property amenities, couples-centric activities are led by the resort’s CXOs who challenge lovers to work together during unique games. The games are always guaranteed to be a great time.

The suites have been the main attraction of these resorts since they first opened in 1958. Geared toward themes of romance, the resorts feature 14 unique suites from which to choose. Some of the most popular features of these suites include indoor heart-shaped pools, heart-shaped whirlpool tubs and the famous seven-foot tall Champagne Glass whirlpool tubs.

Guests can also purchase gift items to enhance the romantic mood of their in-suite experience, including rose petals, champagne, fire logs and chocolate covered strawberries.
