

JACKSON HOLE'S FREE RENDEZVOUS FESTIVAL RETURNS – ADD AIRLINE ACCESSIBILITY and GREAT SNOW for a PERFECT TRIP

TETON VILLAGE, WY – Jackson Hole Mountain Resort (JHMR) continues to deliver legendary powder snow, 4,139 continuous vertical feet, 2,500 acres of the best beginner, intermediate and expert skiing and snowboarding, and a genuine “Last of the Old West” atmosphere. Neighboring the legacy U.S. National Parks of Yellowstone and Grand Teton, and operating in Bridger Teton National Forest, there is no more spectacular setting for a destination resort in the world. With 12 nonstop cities and hundreds of international connections flying into the newly expanded airport (JAC), Jackson Hole is one of the most easily accessed resorts in the Rockies.

Jackson Hole's Rendezvous Festival Returns

JHMR is excited to announce 2019's musical acts for the 6th Annual Jackson Hole Rendezvous Festival, including hard-jamming, spirited headliners, Nathaniel Rateliff & The Night Sweats. The cult Americana, old-school soul and R&B, eight-member band plays center stage at the base of Jackson Hole Mountain Resort in Teton Village on Saturday, March 16, capping off the annual three-day spring lifestyle music festival. Grace Potter precedes Rateliff & The Night Sweats, performing in the heart of downtown Jackson, Wyo., in the historic Town Square on Friday, March 15.

This three-day spring lifestyle and music festival presents concerts on multiple stages in Teton Village and the iconic Town Square in Jackson from March 15-17, 2019 and is free of charge for general admission audiences across all venues. The festival is coupled with College Rendezvous Weekend, kicking off March 8-10, bringing bands to the stage below the Aerial Tram. The full spring Rendezvous Festival spans two weekends.

“JHMR is excited to offer another impressive lineup of entertainment for our guests with Rendezvous Festival,” states JHMR President, Mary Kate Buckley. “With five years of Rendezvous Festival under our belts, including some heavy-hitting acts and vast audiences, our team is well-versed at putting on top-notch concerts that are fun, convenient, free and the perfect end to a great day of spring skiing at our world class Resort,” Buckley says.

Nathaniel Rateliff & The Night Sweats delivered a memorably rocking performance in the packed streets of downtown Jackson during Jackson Hole Mountain Resorts' 2015-16 season. The band returns to Jackson Hole Mountain Resort this season, bringing the full-band energy of their record, “Tearing at the Seams.” In their new album, The Night Sweats created a set of songs that comprise both an R&B party record and deeply personal confessional from Rateliff, who penned all the lyrics.

Described by Spin as “one of the greatest living voices in rock today,” and by SF Weekly as “the whole package,” Grace Potter continues to impress both critics and audiences with her musical achievements and captivating live shows. The singer-songwriter and multi-instrumentalist has released four studio albums through major label Hollywood Records, including her most recent album, Midnight.

Rendezvous Festival 2019 remains free of charge for general admission audiences in both Town of Jackson and Teton Village venues. VIP tickets with food and beverage amenities are available for online purchase at tiered pricing for both Friday, March 15, and Saturday, March 16 shows. RPK 3

Locals in ski areas claim that there are no friends on a powder day. That can now change with RPK 3, the newest slopeside dining establishment in Teton Village. Conveniently located adjacent to the Tram, RPK 3 is a kitchen and bar offering fast casual lunch, fun après scene and everything in between. With a menu that will satisfy each type of skier and rider, there are hot and cold beverages and a mix of healthy, comfort food for mountainous appetites. Find a friend or two and enjoy RPK 3 to keep your body fueled for all the days on the slopes.

Turn après up to RPK3, and look for drink and food specials. Celebrate a powder day with friends, food and festive beverages. The place seats over 150 people, adding much needed restaurant seats in the base area. It has an expansive bar, mix of communal and smaller tables and a modern fireplace in the center of the room. It is a destination for locals and visitors alike. RPK3 opens daily at 10 a.m. for bar service, 11 a.m. for lunch and après goes until it is over.

What does RPK3 mean?

Rendezvous Peak RPK is the snowfall forecast issued by the National Weather Service for the Bridger-Teton National Forest Avalanche center. The RPK is called around 3 p.m. each day predicting the amount of snow expected in the next 16 hours. RPK3 means greater than
